Re: Markle v. Nevada Division of Insurance

Dear Mr. Markle:

The Nevada Attorney General has been retained to represent the Nevada Division of Insurance. Because the Division has been named as a litigant in this matter, we demand that all communications to the Division and its officers and employees be directed to our office from now on.

Further, while your wife - Ms. Jessica Markle - is not a named party in this litigation, we also request all communications made from her to the Division and its officers and employees be directed to our office.

The Division and its officers and employees have been instructed to direct all communications to our office.

Failure to comply with this letter, including circumvention via making contact through a third-party, will result in seeking appropriate sanctions with the Court under NRCP 26, 64(b), and EDCR 2.10.

At the time of this letter, we have also not received formal service and there is no proof of service filed with the Court. The Division and Attorney General does not waive service. Thus, we further request formal service of the Writ pursuant to the Nevada Revised Statutes, Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure, and Rules of Practice of the Eighth Judicial District Court.
